

USHA MARTIN WORLD SCHOOL, PATNA SESSION (2019-2020)

On 17th June, 2019 Oxford Publication conducted a workshop in USHA MARTIN WORLD SCHOOL, PATNA for the teachers teaching there in the presence of the principal and the vice principal on the topic LIFE SKILLS. The resource persons were Mr. Arindham Sengupta assisted by Mr. Prateek. Mr. Arindham asked so many questions to the teachers during the session like who are we? What do we carry in our purse? The teachers actively participated in the workshop and replied all the queries positively. He suggested and advised the teachers how can they become a good and great teacher and how can they enhance their teaching methodology in this competitive world of teaching. He said an ideal classroom is one where there is communication, collaboration, creativity and critical thinking develops. He stressed the importance of effective communication and expected from the teachers to bring the world in classroom. He said we (the teachers, he himself and others present in the workshop) were taught in 20th century and now we all are teaching the students of 21st century. It's very challenging to cope with the students of 21st century. He said a teacher is a lifelong learner.
